

CHORUS OF THE SAINTS

This is the chorus of the saints,
Singing Hallelujah, our God is faithful
This is the chorus of the saints,
Singing Hallelujah, our God is faithful

There's the redeemed lost again
Confused with doubts and suffering

But if only they'd open up their eyes
And see the beauty of their God who has never left their side

This is the chorus of the saints,
Singing Hallelujah, our God is faithful
This is the chorus of the saints,
Singing Hallelujah, our God is faithful

We the redeemed are lost again
With misplaced trust and desire to complain

But if only we open up our eyes
And see the beauty of our God who has never left our side

This is the chorus of the saints,
Singing Hallelujah, our God is faithful
This is the chorus of the saints,
Singing Hallelujah, our God is faithful

So open up your eyes,
And see the beauty of you God
Who has never left your side

This is the chorus of the saints,
Singing Hallelujah, our God is faithful
This is the chorus of the saints,
Singing Hallelujah, our God is faithful
This is the chorus of the saints,
Singing Hallelujah, our God is faithful
